

AGFE September SPOTLIGHT

Celebrating Three Years of YTP

“We believe that empowering our youth is vital when it comes to realizing the development goals set by our leadership.”

-H.E Abdul Aziz Al Ghurair, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of AGFE

Al Ghurair Young Thinkers Program (YTP): from Education to Employability

Evolution of YTP

Originally a college and career readiness platform designed to serve 5,000 Emirati youth, YTP has evolved into a transferrable skills program with 42,000+ users.

As a supplemental tool, stakeholders can integrate YTP into their operations.

- Universities gain access to a tool that supports faculty and staff in delivering employability-related skills, freeing up time and resources.
- Employers can implement professional and transferable skill development courses into their operations, building a more skilled workforce.

Scaling the Impact

UAE - AGFE and Zayed University have collaborated to implement YTP across university programs over 1,000 students and trained over 700 faculty.

Region - Luminus Technical University College in Jordan has integrated YTP into their programs with over 4,900 students registered and engaged on the platform.

Quick statistics

- Total number of users: 42,000+
- Total number of courses: 35
  - o 62% course completion rate
  - o 95% reported that YTP was effective for learning transferable skills

Overview

In collaboration with Arizona State University (ASU), YTP provides Emirati and Arab youth with high-quality education to employment resources.
